OmniLingua Worldwide, LLC selected as Preferred Supplier by Natus Medical Incorporated

Cedar Rapids, Iowa, USA (June 1, 2009) – OmniLingua Worldwide, LLC has been selected as a preferred localization supplier by Natus Medical Incorporated, a leading provider of medical products and systems for newborn care. OmniLingua, a global language management services firm, has provided comprehensive translation and localization services to Natus for over two years. The new three-year contract and preferred localization supplier designation, recognizes the quality service and dedication to continual process improvement that OmniLingua provides.

“OmniLingua has consistently provided good service and customer support in addition to high quality, accurate translations” noted Lisa Burque, Senior Director of Marketing at Natus Medical.

“It is an honor to be chosen by Natus Medical as a global, preferred language services provider,” commented Michael Oettli, Managing Director of OmniLingua Worldwide. “We are excited to be able to continue and expand the relationships and services which began in 2006. This commitment by Natus Medical validates the quality services OmniLingua has provided through close collaboration and affirms a valued partnership between our two organizations into the future”.
